2. Introduction

- 2.1. The Agreement shall apply for any Delivery Services that the parties agree that Nexus shall provide to the Customer.
- 2.2. Nexus will either provide the Delivery Services on an additional resource basis or as a project. In either event, the parties shall agree on and sign an SOW.

3. Delivery Services as additional resources

- 3.1. The Delivery Services shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner.

- 3.2. In the event Nexus provides the Delivery Services on an additional resource basis Nexus will not be responsible for managing the consultants assigned to the matter or for achieving any specific result. The Customer shall in such event be responsible for providing the consultants with the necessary resources and permits to provide the Delivery Services. Unless otherwise is agreed, Nexus shall provide the consultants at the place agreed upon, during Monday – Friday between 09.00 and 17.00 local time.
- 3.3. Delivery Services provided on an additional resource basis shall be provided from and to the date agreed between the parties, or until the Customer terminates the Delivery Services for convenience with 30 days' prior written notice.

4. Project based Delivery Services

- 4.1. Should the Delivery Services be project based, Nexus shall be responsible for achieving the Result. The project specifics, such as implementation plan, time schedules and the Result shall be specified in the SOW. Nexus may freely determine the methods and tools necessary for providing the Delivery Services unless the Parties have agreed otherwise. The Customer shall contribute with the resources reasonably requested by Nexus and as agreed by the parties in the SOW.

5. Acceptance

- 5.1. Nexus shall inform the Customer about the date as of which the Deliverables will be ready for acceptance testing ("Acceptance Readiness Date"). The Customer shall then promptly commence to carry out the agreed acceptance testing procedures, exclusively to verify compliance of the Deliverables with the SOW.
- 5.2. Within ten (10) calendar days as of the Acceptance Readiness Date or as of the receipt of the respective notice indicating the Acceptance Readiness Date, whichever is later, ("Acceptance Deadline"), the Customer shall declare in writing acceptance, acceptance with reservation or its refusal to accept. The Deliverables are deemed to be accepted if the Customer does not declare in writing its refusal to accept within the Acceptance Deadline. Any such refusal or acceptance with reservation shall include the detailed description of the material defects which prevent the acceptance (without reservation).

- 5.3. In any event, the Deliverables shall be deemed to be accepted if the Customer actually makes use of the Deliverables (other than for mere purposes of the acceptance testing).
- 5.4. The Customer shall accept the Deliverables in case there are no material defects; in case of non-material defects, the Customer is not entitled to refuse acceptance but shall instead accept the Deliverables with reservation.
- 5.5. In case of defects, Nexus will rectify the defect within a reasonable time not shorter than thirty (30) calendar days as of receipt the Customer's refusal to accept or acceptance with reservation.
- 5.6. If a Deliverable is materially defective after the second rectification and the Customer therefore refuses to accept, the Customer can declare acceptance with reservation and reduce Nexus' remuneration claims adequately in view of the remaining defects or – provided that the Deliverable Works is of no reasonable use for the Customer – rescind the underlying Individual Contract. Nexus can refuse the Customer's demand to further rectifications.
- 5.7. If Nexus fails to have the Deliverable ready for acceptance testing in due time, the Parties shall agree on a reasonable additional time period (not to be shorter than thirty (30) calendar days) for Nexus to deliver the Project for Works. If after such additional time period the Deliverable is still not ready for acceptance testing, the Customer may set a final deadline by written notice (not to be shorter than twenty (20) calendar days after Nexus received the Customer's notification). Such written notice shall provide a warning that the Customer may rescind the Individual Contract if the final deadline expires. In the event the Deliverable is still not ready for acceptance testing at such final deadline, the Customer shall be entitled to rescind the respective Individual Contract.
- 5.8. If the Customer causes a delay, Nexus shall be entitled to adjust the terms of the Delivery Services, such as but not limited to the time schedules, and to be compensated for any additional costs incurred by Nexus due to such delay.
- 5.9. Once the Result is accepted, the Customer shall be granted a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, worldwide limited license to use the Result in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.

6. Miscellaneous

- 6.1. Regardless if Nexus provide the Delivery Services on an additional resource basis or as a project, in case of termination of the Services and this is not due to a material breach by Nexus, Nexus shall have the right to receive full compensation for the time and material Nexus has provided to the Customer or as other agreed between Nexus and the Customer in writing.

7. Limitation of liability

The terms regarding limitation of liability set out in the Agreement shall apply. However, in no event will Nexus be liable to the Customer for any special, incidental, indirect or consequential damages (including loss of data, profits or revenue, cost of capital or downtime costs), or for any exemplary or punitive damages arising out of any performance of this Agreement or any purchase order, regardless of whether such damages are based in tort, warranty, contract or any other legal theory, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. Regarding direct damages, in no event shall Nexus' liability to Customer under this Agreement exceed the amount paid by Customer to Nexus for the Delivery Services.
